FUND PERFORMANCE REVIEW

The United Capital Children Investment Fund returned 30.86% for the month of June as against the composite benchmark of 22.00% posted during the same period.

Nigerian equities lost momentum in June 2026, reversing May's gains. The NGX-ASI fell 8.37% m/m to close at 229,419.19 points (YTD 47.43%), with market capitalization down N13.29tn to N147.22tn.

In fixed income, the CBN mopped up N4.8tn via two OMO auctions and system liquidity closed at N4.10tn, with the OPR at 22.00% and O/N at 22.23%. The bond market traded bearish: average 2032 and 2034 yields rose to 18.62% and 18.70%, while corporate yields climbed to 20.72%.

Into July 2026, equities are expected to remain broadly stable and selective as investors assess Q2 and half-year earnings, with dividend payments supportive and the CBN's July 20-21 MPC meeting a key driver. Fixed income should retain a bearish tone with yields staying elevated. The Fund will keep a balanced equity/fixed income mix in line with the Trust Deed.
