Nigeria

- According to data from the Central Bank of Nigeria, Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) declined to c.$60.0m in Jan-2021 from c.$90.0m in Dec-2021. The decline in FDI reflects continued investor concern regarding the macroeconomic and business operating environment in Nigeria. Lastly, recent FX challenges have further exacerbated foreign investor apathy towards the Nigerian economy.
- The Federal Government announced that the distribution of the 4 million free electricity prepaid meters promised by the Central Bank of Nigeria would soon begin. This is part of the move to enhance widespread metering across the electricity distribution network.
- A civic tech non-profit organisation called BudgIT carried out investigations on the Federal government's 2021 budget, revealing 316 duplicated projects valued at N39.6bn, of which 115 of these repeated projects were from the Federal Ministry of Health. These duplicates were regarded as corruption loopholes forcing BudgIT to call for urgent budget reforms.
- The Central Bank of Nigeria revealed that Nigeria's external reserves lost $359.0m in two weeks, falling to $34.9bn on 29-Apr from a high of $35.3bn as of 16-Apr.
- Nigeria inched closer to the deployment of 5G communications technology as the Nigerian Communications Commission (NCC) and Nigerian Communications Satellite Limited (NCSL) signed a Memorandum of Understanding for the use of C-Band spectrum on Nigerian communications satellite for 5G services.
- The Central Bank of Nigeria (CBN) announced via a circular that the "naira for dollar scheme" that was supposed to end on 8-May had been extended until further notice

Ghana

- According to data from Stanbic and Markit Economics, Ghana's private sector PMI for the month of Apr-2021 stood at 52.4 compared to 51.8 in Mar-2021 and 31.7 in Apr-2020. It represents the 9th consecutive month of expansion, as the economy recovers from the covid-19 induced slowdown
- According to a report from the Bank of Ghana (BoG), Ghanaian banks' recorded slower profit growth of 5.9% y/y in the first two months of 2021 (compared to 38.8% y/y in the same period of 2020).
- The slower growth was driven by weak credit creation as banks were hesitant on extending credit amidst weaker macroeconomic conditions. Thus, banks have been piling funds in investment securities with lower yields.
- According to the Minister of Trade and Investment, the African Continental Free Trade Agreement (AfCTA) represents a significant gamechanger for the Ghanaian economy as they strive for post-covid economic recovery and transformation.
- According to the Minister, this informed the proliferation of the National Export Development Strategy, which aims to increase revenue from non-traditional exports to $25.3bn.
- As Twitter looks forward to setting up its African headquarters in Ghana, the co-founder and CEO of Twitter, Jack Dorsey, will stay back in Ghana

Liberia

- According to news sources, the President of Liberia, Dr George Weah, has announced the removal of import tariffs on majorly consumed food staple, rice.
- According to the President, the reduction in the price of rice was part of a move to tame the surge in prices of key commodities, thus leading to the issuance of an executive order rather than waiting for the long legislative process.
- The Government of Liberia and the World Bank Liberia Country office have signed a dual financing agreement totalling US$74.2m. The funding is meant for the following projects: the Liberia Electricity Sector Strengthening and Access Project (LESSAP), valued at US$64.2m, and the Recovery of Economic Activity for Liberian Informal Sector Employment (REALISE) project valued at US$10.0m.

East Africa

Ethiopia

- According to the Commercial Bank of Ethiopia (CBE), demand for digital banking services in Ethiopia has increased. The CBE president attributed the increase to efforts aimed at encouraging digital banking amid the disruption caused by the Covid-19 pandemic.
- Isaias Lema, Crop Production Director at the Ministry of Agriculture, stated that the Ethiopian government would continue to import wheat until irrigation development projects substitute the country's wheat imports over the next three years.

Kenya

- The Stanbic Bank's Kenya Purchasing Manager's Index (PMI) for Apr-2021 plunged to 41.5 from 50.6 in Mar-2021. Notably, this is the lowest reading since May-2020, showing that Kenya's private sector activity during the month of April dropped to its weakest level in 11 months.
- The decline is due to travel limits and extended curfews implemented in five counties at the end of March.
- International Finance Corporation (IFC) has announced plans to lend $25.0m (KSh2.7bn) to Stellar Warehousing and Logistics Limited, a Real Estate development firm in Kenya.
- According to a Mastercard research, cryptocurrency adoption in Kenya is increasing, in line with consumer demand for novel, quick, and flexible digital experiences.
- Uber Technologies announced the launch of electric 'BodaBodas' and bicycles for drivers on UberBoda, Uber Connect, and Uber Eats in Kenya.
